You may imagine what a passion I was in when I was so much blundered in that way. I heard Jerry laugh, and Shifty Dick swear a whole mouthful of oaths. Then there was dead silence for a minute or two, and then the two ruffians attacked the door.

I rushed into the kitchen and seized the poker, and then heaped wood on the fire, and lighted all the candles I could find, for I felt as if I could keep up my courage let or if I had plenty of light. Strange and improbable as it may appear, the next thing that attracted my attention was my poor pussy, crouched up, pensive, in a corner. I was so fond of the little creature that I took her up in my arms and carried her into my bedroom, and put her inside my bed. A comical thing to do in a situation of deadly peril, was it not? But it seemed quite natural and proper at the time.

All this while the blows were falling faster and faster on the door. They were dealt, as I conjectured, with heavy stones picked up from the ground outside. Jerry sang at the wicked work, and Shifty Dick swore. As I left the bedroom, after putting the cat under cover, I heard the lower panel of the door begin to crack.

I ran into the kitchen and huddled our four silver spoons into my pocket, the unlucky book with the bank-notes and put it in the bosom of my dress. I was determined to defend the property confided to my care with my life. Just as I had secured the pocket-book I heard the door splintering, and rushed into the passage again with my heavy kitchen poker lifted in both hands.

I was in time to see the bald head of Jerry, with the ugly-looking knobs on it, pushed in to the passage through a great rent in one of the lower panels of the door.

"Get out, you villain, or I'll brain you on the spot!" cried I, threatening him with the poker. Mr. Jerry took his head out again much faster than he had put it in.

The next thing that came through the rent was a long hatchet, which they darted at me from outside, to move me from the door. I struck at it with all my might, and the blow must have jarred the hand of Shifty Dick up to his very shoulder, for I heard him give a roar of rage and pain. Before he could catch at the fork with his other hand I had drawn it inside. By this time even Jerry lost his temper, and swore more awfully than Dick himself.

Then there came another minute of respite. I suspected they were gone to get bigger stones, and dreaded the grating way of the door. Running into bedroom as this fear beset me, I laid hold of my chest of drawers, dragged it into the passage, and threw it down against the door. On the top of that I heaped my father's big tool-chest, three chairs, and a scuttled of coals—and, last, I dragged out the kitchen-table and rammed it as hard as I could against the whole barricade. They heard me as they were coming up to the door, with fresh stones. Jerry said, "Stop a bit!" and then the two consulted together in whispers. I listened eagerly and just caught these words:

The Daily News

NEWPORT,
144 Thames Street.

THURSDAY MORNING, Feb. 12, 1857.

E. TOWNSEND, Esq., is hereby authorized to transact for us any business connected with the News and Journal office of this city.

Mr. Editor:—I see by the News that the members of the Philharmonic Society are to give their fourth concert on Thursday night. I am glad to see this evidence of life and vigor in a society bearing so suggestive and so honored a name.

Allow me interested in music, particularly in singing, to say a few words respecting the history of this Institution.

The Philharmonic Society was instituted March 13, 1854. It had at its commencement eighteen members. It shows now upon its books forty-nine names of past and present members. Its number of acting members at present is twenty-five.

This Society has given three public performances. The last of these—"David"—was attended with the enterprise and expense of bringing an orchestra of fine players to our city. The concert resulting therefrom was a very satisfactory performance.

Although at all times their audiences have been large, yet owing to the false policy of giving intellectual entertainments for almost nothing and the heavy expenses incurred by their public performances, they have not been able to meet their outgoes. Owing to this circumstance a number of our citizens have volunteered to take by subscription a certain number of tickets at a compensating rate for the forthcoming concert. Others wishing in this laudable manner to patronize this Society may have an opportunity by calling at the City Music Store.

I see the pieces advertised for this performance promise well and the probability will find their reward in attending.

It affords us great pleasure to insert the above; and we express the hope, that the citizens of Newport generally will encourage the cultivation of musical talent among them by showing a sympathy for those, devoting their energies to this laudable end. Dr. Wood has toiled hard, and successfully, and deserves your countenance and support.

HEARTFELT.—A little half-famished boy on going home from the lecture at the State House on Sunday evening, told his mother that he knew the lady had put a spirit in him for he felt it jumping about in his heart.

THE MOTHER'S FIRST TRIAL.

BY MRS. ANDY.

We miss thee from our side, sweet boy, we miss thee from our hearth,
With thine eye of beaming archness, and thy voice of playful mirth;
Gladness was ever in thy smile, and sunshine on thy brow.

Thou hast not caused our anxious hearts a single pang till now;
Thy winning grace, thy artless glee, thy delicate love, a east
A bright and lag radiance o'er the records of the past;
Home, to our thoughts has ever seemed a dear familiar name.

But home without our darling one, appears not now the same.
Yet reason aids and strengthens me to bear this trying day,
Childhood's gay joys and frolic sports I know must pass away;
The time has come, my cherished boy, for manhood to prepare.

Thy quick and ready intellect demands instruction's care.
SPANISH COIN.—The long needed fiat has gone forth, and hereafter the Spanish quarters, shillings, and shillings which have infested our pockets—swindling us out of 1-2 or 1-4 cent on every trifling purchase—are condemned to the crucible. The N. Y. Herald states that at the mint $500 in Spanish coin yielded $479 or 2 1-2 per cent. loss! The loss is mis-stated, being nearly 4 per cent.

The silver was probably much finer than that used by our government, for taking the U. S. coins as a standard of parity, the loss is much greater; $5 50 in small American change weighs 85 6 1-2 dr., in small Spanish coin, 43 1-2 dr., the difference 5 grains being equivalent to 78 cents, or 14 1-8 per cent.

If the coin weighed by us as of average weight, a comparison of our results with those quoted by the Herald, would make it appear that the American silver contains 10 per cent. more alloy than the Spanish.

We hope that the public generally will refuse to receive Spanish coin, except for its depressed value, which will soon take it out of circulation. With the best currency in the world of our own, there is no reason why we should retain in use, an inconvenient, unnecessary foreign coinage, even though the appearance of it indicates that it has been in the country upwards of 21 years, and consequently is not obnoxious to the "Know Nothings". P. P. C.

THE NEW DEMOCRACY.—It may seem strange, but it is nevertheless true, that Mr. Palm, the newly elected Bank Director of Missouri, was nominated by the Democratic party, and elected by them, after avowing himself a "Free Soiler" "without a shadow of concealment."

When we consider that a Democratic Missouri Legislature has elected men rank with heresy to "the Institution"—and that the Pennsylvania Legislature elected Simon Cameron to the Senate over poor Forney, the soul of Pennsylvania Democracy, it really seems that the results of the Republican movement are not confined to the vote for Fremont, vast as that was, but that the heart of Democracy itself has been stormed, and softened to an appreciation of the enormities of its sins. If we have thus conquered our foe, and brought them bodily to our way of thinking, we cannot over estimate our victory.

As for the officers, they are quite welcome to them, only give us an administration who, whatever their platform is, are true to Liberty, and the natural rights of Free Labor, and we can cheerfully walk hand in hand, in its support. SOUTHERNER.

DR. BOYLE.—We learn by private letters from Washington, that among the friends of the late Preston S. Brooks there exists the greatest dissatisfaction concerning the treatment of that individual, and that it is universally believed he fell a victim to Dr. R.'s utter ignorance of his case. This feeling extends to South Carolina, and it is thought the medical gentleman will soon find it advisable to leave Washington and seek some other field of labor.

Dr. Boyle is the son of an intelligent Irish gentleman who died in Washington a few years since. During the excitement at the Capital consequent upon the abducting of a lot of slaves by Captain Drayton, of the schooner Pearl, he was an active member of a committee appointed to wait upon Dr. Bailey, of the National Era, and request the removal of his press from the limits of the District of Columbia. With Dr. Bailey's firm and manly course most of our readers are doubtless well acquainted. One of our occasional correspondents, who then resided in Washington, was threatened with a personal attack by Dr. Boyle for his censures upon the conduct of the ultra Southern press on the above occasion. —Boston Transcript.

THE CHINESE SUGAR MILLET.—An agricultural correspondent of the Scientific American says he ground in a cider mill, and then pressed, about a half a bushel of the Chinese sugar millet, which he supposed to be worthless from being touched with frost, and he obtained a quart of excellent molasses from the juice by evaporation. He judges that the square rod of ground planted—if the cases had all been used—would have produced four gallons of molasses, or at the rate of six hundred and forty gallons per acre. Such a crop would have proved valuable last year, since sugar and molasses are so high.

The failure of Henry S. Washburn & Co., of Worcester, the extensive iron and wire manufacturers, was announced last week.

MURDER.—In Manchester, N. H., on Friday evening, two Irish women, named Hennessy and Connelley, got into a quarrel about a piece of cheese, during which the former threw the latter upon the floor, and beat her so badly that she died shortly afterwards.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.

SENATE.—Mr. Pearce gave notice of his intention to introduce a bill providing for the time and manner of electing U. S. Senators, by the Legislatures of the several States.

Additional documents have been received relative to the proclamation of martial law in Washington Territory by Gov. Stevens. Mr. Rusk moved the reference of the credentials of Mr. Fitch, the proceeding of the Senate, and the protest of the members of the House of Representatives of Indiana relative thereto, to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. Toombs desired that these papers might be referred to a select committee.

Mr. Toombs thought that the subject ought to be referred to a select committee, composed in part of gentlemen of the opposite party.

Mr. Rusk disliked to hear the insinuations which frequently had been made that the Judiciary Committee was entirely composed of the political friends of the sitting member.

Mr. Geyer differed from Mr. Rusk. It was his impression that both sides had expressed their confidence in the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Seward believed that the committee was as impartial as any other in the body, and that the republican party were entirely willing to entrust this question in their hands.

Mr. Butler did not object to examining this question from any distrust of his own impartiality.

Mr. Crittenden said that if the select committee be raised in this particular case, it might be supposed that it was designed to accomplish a special purpose; whereas a reference of the question to the ordinary standing committee was the usual course, and could not be objected to by either side of the chamber.

Mr. Hale sustained Mr. Rusk's motion. Mr. Trumbull said the Indiana Legislature was now in session, and would soon adjourn, not to meet again for two years. It was, consequently, important that this question should be disposed of as soon as possible, in order that if the sitting member should be declared not entitled to his seat, the Legislature might have an opportunity to elect some one in his place.

Mr. Toombs explained that at the time the standing committee were formed, there were members of the opposite party on the Judiciary Committee, but that in the course of affairs they had come to act with the Democracy in upholding the Constitution of the country.

He said.—The House resumed the consideration of the bill establishing the Collection Districts of the United States, codifying and amending the Revenue Laws, etc., and, after a struggle, it was tabled by 98 against 85.

The Senate's Submarine Telegraph bill was taken up. Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, moved to lay the matter on the table. Mr. Jones, of Tenn., moved to commit the bill to the Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union. Disagreed to by 83 against 101. The question was then taken on committing the bill to the Post Office Committee, and decided in the affirmative by 90 against 87.

The House then went into Committee on the tariff bill.

Mr. Boyce said, in June, 1855, there will be a surplus revenue of $48,000,000 in specie, in spite of the extravagant appropriation of the last few years; hence the necessity of reducing the revenue.

Mr. Wilson opposed the pending bill. It reduced the revenue, without removing public burdens, and was highly protective. He advocated a reduction of the duties in all the schedules of the act of 1846.

POCKET PRINTING PRESS.—A Boston paper says that a young man from Hartford, Vermont, (Mr. Livermore), has invented a machine for printing, which, without a figure, and literally, may be called a pocket printing-press, since it may be carried in one's pocket, and operated there. The polished steel case which contains the apparatus is five inches long, two and a half inches broad, and one and a half inches thick. This contains the type, the ink, the paper, and the machinery. At one end of the case are six keys, on which the fingers of the operator play, as on a piano. The types are composed of the sections of a parallel-gram, crossed by two diagonals. This parallelogram is cut so ingeniously as to form all the letters of the alphabet, and in a shape so as to be easily read, in the impression, by any person, on presentation. The size is Double Longish, and the fashion Antique. The impression is like the page of a book, lines horizontal from left to right. The slip of paper, some yards in length, is on a cylinder, and, as fast as printed, is received on another cylinder. The ink is contained in a piece of cloth saturated with it to which the types are applied so often as is necessary. The rapidity of the printing is about equal to that of writing with a pen, as most persons write. One would not believe all this possible beforehand, but when he is presented with a sentence legibly printed, for example,

"If there be a hole in a' your coats, I rede yent it."
A chief's among native notes.
And faith he'll print it."

and unpenally printed then and there, he is no longer skeptical. Mr. Livermore flatters himself and not unreasonably, that it will be very useful in cars, walking in the street, or parts, or rambling in the fields, and even in dark nights in bed, to arrest a fugitive thought, often of great importance to the world, which would otherwise be lost irretrievably. A more important reflection is, that the principle in the little machine will lead to something of extensive application on a larger scale. He has made application for a patent, and it is to be hoped that his ingenuity may be amply rewarded.

In Brooklyn, on Tuesday, a lad named Henry E. Colgan, 16 years of age, while sliding down hill in Columbia street, came in contact with the sled of another boy, and had his skull so badly fractured that he died the next day.

CASE OF W. S. TUCKERMAN.—A motion for a reduction of the bail of Wm. S. Tuckerman was argued in the Municipal Court on Sunday. The motion was overruled, he never, and the Court directed that the amount of bail, $15,000, continue the same until the decision of the Supreme Court, and the exceptions filed and allowed in the case.—Boston Daily Advertiser.

BRUTAL ATTACK UPON AN EDITOR.—Middleton, Ct. Feb. 9.—Walter S. Carter, editor of the Middlesex County Argus, was severely beaten here, this morning, by Capt. James DeKay, in consequence of an article in his paper reflecting severely upon Rev. E. Harwood, Mrs. Harwood, and her sister, Miss DeKay. Mr. Carter is bleeding freely at the lungs, and his recovery is considered doubtful.

DEATH OF BISHOP REYNOLDS.—Bishop Reynolds, an ardent minister of the gospel in the Methodist Episcopal Church in Canada, and highly respected by all who knew him, died from disease of the heart, at Hamilton, Canada West, on the 17th of January, aged 71 years. He was a native of this State, having been born in Cinnbeck near to the city of Hudson. He had been a preacher for 50 years. His last sermon was preached from the text, "For there shall be no night there."—N. Y. Tribune.

A VENERABLE COUPLE.—Mr. George Weaver, of Yarmouth, was recently married to Mrs. Sally Caswell, of this city, the united ages of the two being one hundred and thirty-eight years. The bridegroom is rising 68 years and this is his fifth marriage. The bride is in her 60th year, and this is her second marriage. We beg to express the old Spanish salutation to the happy couple: "May you live a thousand years." There is quite a difference between the ages of these parties and the years of a young couple who were married in this city, last summer, where the united ages of the bride and bridegroom reached the extensive figure of thirty-four.—New Bedford Standard.

FRESHET—BRIDGES CARRIED AWAY.—Trains Detained.—Bridgeport, Conn., Feb. 9.—The Railroad Bridge at Derby, Conn., was swept away this morning by the freshet, and track submerged to the depth of nearly two feet.

Normish, Conn., Feb. 9.—A Railroad Bridge about four miles beyond this place was carried away by the freshet this morning. The train which left this morning for the East was obliged to return on account of the damage to the road. The water is two feet deep in the passenger depot at this place.

NEW JERSEY SENATORS.—The Democratic members of the Legislature in Trenton are generally agreed upon the re-election of Hon. John R. Thompson for United States Senators from New Jersey.

A post office has been established at "Bliss' Four Corners," in Tiverton, and Cyrus Bliss has been appointed postmaster. This office will be supplied with a mail three times a week from the office in Fall River.

The British ship Lord Ashburton was lately lost on the Great Manon. Out of 29 men on board but 8 were saved.—17 of their bodies have washed ashore.

It is stated that Col. John Preston, of Louisiana, has lately made $360,000 from one year's crop of molasses at 80 cents per gallon.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

WILLIAM R. SMITH, DENTIST, Rooms directly over the Post Office, "The Died of Quacks."

Remembered a friend of mine, as we spoke of a young man, a recent victim of the dreaded Consumption; and with great force the truth came to our mind, knowing as we did that in his case mistaken practice had again conspired against the grave. In cases of colds, bronchitis, and other lung and throat diseases, put your trust in Mrs. M. N. Gardner's Indian Balsam of Liverwort and Horehound. It never fails to give relief!

A CARD TO THE LADIES.

DR. DEPOUX'S Golden Periodical Pills for Females. Perfectly harmless, yet wonderfully and powerfully efficacious in correcting, regulating, and removing all obstructions from whatever cause. All medical men know, as well as many others, that no female can enjoy good health, unless she is regular; and whenever a disturbance takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health becomes immediately to decline, and the want of such remedy has been the cause of so many complications among young females. Headache, Pain in the Side, Palpitation of the Heart, Fainting of Power, and Disturbed Sleep, do not always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils, and may always be used successfully as a preventive. Price, $1.00 per box. For sale by HAZARD & CASWELL, 12 Washington Square, and 137 Thames St. They will supply the trade at manufacturer's prices. Ladies, by enclosing $1.00 to STURGIS & CO., Box 24, Newport Post Office, can have the Pills sent (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country. 1223-1y

ANOTHER TRIUMPH OF THE DOGHOUSE SALT-UNDER. Sales!!! New York, Nov. 4th, 1856.

MR. ROBT. M. PATRICK. DEAR SIR:—The Deference Sale, No. 5,778, purchased from you about eighteen months since, was in my house at Newport, R. I., which, with the furniture, was entirely destroyed by fire on the night of 5th June last. The safe, after being exposed to an intense heat for many hours, was recovered on the 1st of June. Not having the necessary tools at hand to open it, the same has stood put at where recovered, until shipped to your address, 200 1st. When opened at your store this morning, I was agreeably surprised, as were also others present, to find the contents, consisting of valuable silver plate, &c., in as perfect order as when placed therein. It is with pleasure I add my testimony to the merits of the safes of your manufacture. Yours, Respectfully, ROBT. M. PATRICK.

SALES OF ALL STYLES, Plate Chests for Private Families, &c., always on hand, for sale and made to order, at the Depot, 122 PRANK STREET, one door below Maiden Lane, and at the Manufactory, Nos. 61, 62, 61 and 69 Cannon Street, New York.
